JOINT REPORT FROM PARTIES RULE 7026(f) CONFERENCE

On May 18, 2020, counsel for Plaintiff, Defendants Oklahoma Energy Acquisitions, LP (“OEA”), and Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as Administrative Agent (“Wells Fargo”),¹ held a preliminary conference to discuss scheduling and other matters.

In view of Wells Fargo's pending Motion To Dismiss ("MTD") (Doc. No. 31) and for purposes of economy, the parties signing below have agreed that the Court should set a hearing and rule on the MTD before commencing formal discovery, and further agreed to abate the balance of the subject matter of the standard Rule 26(f) Report until after resolution of the MTD. To effectuate their agreement, the parties report that they have reached the following stipulations:

- Any Defendant who chooses may file a joinder to the MTD on or before May 29, 2020, provided, however, that such joinders may not raise any additional arguments in support of the MTD.

¹ Following this conference, Plaintiff attempted to contact each of the remaining defendants (“Statutory Lien Defendants”). Plaintiff received permission to file this report from the parties who are signatories below. Plaintiff was unable to reach an attorney representing Defendants Tenaris Global Services, Simons Petroleum, Hamilton Engineering, or US Specialty Insurance Company.

- o Initial Disclosures and commencement of all discovery shall be stayed to a date that is fifteen (15) days after entry of an order on the MTD.
- o Responsive pleading deadlines for all non-Wells Fargo defendants shall be tolled and extended to a date that is fifteen (15) days after entry of an order on the MTD.
- o The parties request a mid-June hearing date for the MTD.

Respectfully submitted,
